

AUTOS IN ENGLAND
COST U. S. NOTHING

Astonishing Prices Paid in London for Army Transports at Auction.

ORIGINAL COST EXCEEDED

LONDON, June 5 (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—American Army motor transport in England has not cost the United States government anything for machines, according to figures prepared at Army headquarters here. Astonishing prices have been paid here for machines the Army has placed at auction, touring cars in scores of instances bringing more than the original cost, even though they have been rather hard to sell for motor cars.

The Army purchased a number of cars of a light popular type for $400 each and these have sold for as high as $1,000, after being used eight months. Another machine, the average purchasing price for which was $1,085, has brought as much as $1,500 at the auction sales. The prices bid for touring cars have been absolutely amazing. J. C. West, head of the motor transport work in the quarter-master department here, told the Associated Press, a great deal higher than we would have dared ask on straight sales.

Touring Cars in Demand.
Although the Army had 52 touring cars, trucks, ambulances, motor cycles and bicycles for the use of transporting about 1,000,000 men through England, a great number of these have been reserved to be used in the final clearing out of headquarters in London.

Good prices have been obtained for the trucks and ambulances, especially good prices when compared with what second-hand motors bring in the United States, but the greatest demand has been for the touring cars, motor cycles and bicycles.

England never did build such vehicles in quantity and during the war none were built for private use. Now the demand is so great that actual values have been almost discarded entirely.

Some observers place this demand in the same category with the insatiable desire for automobiles of finery at unprecedented prices which even then the shops cannot supply, or other things which people who would hardly have thought of such things before the war.

SUNDAY THIEVES STEAL
CREPE AND SILK SHIRTS

Sunday robberies varying from a huckster's horse and wagon, filled with vegetables, to silk and crepe de chine shirts, were reported to the police during the past twenty-four hours.

Mrs. S. E. Elise of 1115 Kenyon street northwest reported a burglar had entered her home during her absence and taken jewelry valued at $280.

Cyrus Rouch, a guest of a local hotel, reported his room had been entered last night and a silk crepe de chine shirt, one razor, one Panama hat and other articles had been stolen. Robert Briggs, another guest, told the police that he had been robbed of four silk shirts, five ties, one Panama hat and a small sum of cash. The entire case involves $1,000.

Police were notified by Night Watchman Gilbert of the downtown district early yesterday morning. He discovered a man in the clear store of B. Kasse, at 601 E. street northwest. The individual escaped through the skylight.

Harry E. Wise of 2107 L. street northwest reported shortly before last midnight that a dapple gray mare attached to a huckster's wagon loaded with vegetables, had been stolen from his shed, at 27th and Dumbarton avenue, during the earlier part of the night.

Fifty dollars was stolen from the cash register of J. Catz, at 1400 1st street southwest, last night, by a thief who obtained entry through a side window, according to a report to the police.

Dr. Gerald Young, superintendent of the Casualty Hospital, was among the victims of the Sunday robberies. He told the police this morning that his home in the hospital grounds was entered and an Oxford gray overcoat valued at $50 was stolen.

Mrs. Frank Swan of Alabama avenue, Congress Heights, reported that a black handbag containing $400, had been stolen from her bedroom between 2 and 7 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

ITALIANS LIKE HUN MUSIC.

Works of German Composers Continue to Be Rome Attractions.

ROME, June 10 (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Italians have not for many months sooted German music. Works of Wagner, Beethoven and other celebrated German composers are constantly the attractions in Rome music halls.

A recent program consisted of Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony," Wagner's "Die Meistersinger von Nürnberg," and his "Tannhäuser Overture."
